Statement of Work (SoW) vs. Traditional headcount augmentation

1. No headcount required

By-pass the administrative processes involved in hiring a full-time employee and get the talent you require without raising your team's headcount.

2. Cost-effective

Secure quality talent on a limited budget without the higher fees associated with traditional hiring practices.

3. Interim basis

Acquire highly skilled professionals to bridge skill gaps on a temporary basis before making a longer-term commitment.
